The Calloway Times says the middle-of-the-road Populists have held a secret meeting and nominated a county ticket in Calloway. As the leaders of the Populists took part in both the recent primary and convention, the action of the anti fusionists has no political significance. Only 3,227 votes were cast in Calloway last | They would disaptent in winter and re-Bates for standing advertisements furnished county primary. If the remaining 350 should all vote together there would still be left a comfortable majority of more than 2500 for the county and district ticket.

> The Senate has made the Bell-Crumbaugh contest a special order for next Tuesday. By that time Senator Hager will be in his seat and there will be 16 Democrats, 16 Republicans and 5 gold men, not counting Senator Ogilvie who is absent. Crumbaugh himself cannot vote and 19 votes will be necessary to seat Bell. It will be seen that three gold men hold the balance of power. As at least three of the five are expected to vote with the Republicans, the chances are against Capt. Bell in the and others, schools and business colleges. chances are against Capt. Bell in the
